BIOGRAPHY

George Ruiz is stepping into the spotlight with his own blend of country and island-inspired music - a new chapter for the songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, and producer. His solo songs, written and produced entirely by him, bridge heartfelt country storytelling with laid-back coastal vibes. As frontman of reggae-pop band The Irie, George has led the group through four national tours, shows in Mexico, Billboard and Apple Music charting releases, and mainstage sets at some of the biggest reggae festivals in the U.S. Through his label and production house, Island Riot Records, he collaborates with artists across genres on songwriting, production, and artist development.
